Assertiveness Boot Camp-What to say to the bully & more! Being assertive is a life skill every kid needs to have in dealing with bullies, in negotiating, handling conflict, setting boundaries, to be taken seriously, & getting their needs met. Kids will learn and practice being assertive in their words, voice, & body language through role-playing and crafts. This camp will help all kids no matter what their confidence level is including kids who may be too aggressive in how they communicate to those who don't use their voice at all. July 12-16 Middle School Girls 1:00-4:00 Full day option available Location: Franklin Athletic Club

Empowered with ADHD Boys will have intense fun being physically active while learning social skills, friendship skills, being empowered, building confidence and bully-proofing themselves. This camp is specifically designed for the challenges and opportunities boys with ADHD face. Games, Olympic challenge courses, role playing, educational activities, and going on nature hikes will all be part of the fun of teaching how to take advantage of one's strengths and learn to manage one's weaknesses. Guest speakers who have achieved success will speak about their journey.
